

THIS DOCUMENT IS AN ADVERTISEMENT OF SERVICES. IT IS NOT AN OFFICIAL DOCUMENT OF THE STATE OF TEXAS.

Texas Refund Desk

Private company · Austin, Texas · Not affiliated with any government agency

September 07, 2026

GARCIA RICHARD L
3675 DUVAL ST
AUSTIN, TX 78721

Our review of public records shows 3675 DUVAL ST, AUSTIN, TX 78721 may be owed an estimated $4,500 property-tax refund.

Dear Richard,

The Travis Central Appraisal District's public appraisal roll lists no homestead exemption on your home. Most owner-occupied homes in Austin have one — it lowers the taxable value for Austin ISD, the City of Austin, Travis County, Austin Community College, and Central Health. Texas law lets you claim the exemption retroactively for 2024 and 2025. If the appraisal district approves it, the Travis County Tax Office refunds the tax you already overpaid for those years — our estimate for your home is $4,500 — and your bill drops by roughly $2,500 every year from here on.

Two ways to claim it:

- 1. Do it yourself, free. File Form 50-114 with the Travis Central Appraisal District at traviscad.org or by mail. There is no fee, and you do not need anyone's help to do it.
- 2. Let us handle it. We prepare the complete application and refund paperwork; you review and sign on your phone in about five minutes. Our fee is 25% of the refund you actually receive — nothing if there is no refund, and nothing on your future annual savings.

Start here: <https://letrfpwskjbgnyacesgv.supabase.co/functions/v1/claim?c=TRD-TEST-0001> · Your claim code: TRD-TEST-0001

Timing matters. The 2024 tax year can only be claimed until February 1, 2027. After that, the oldest year of refund is gone for good.

Sincerely,

Charlie Ponitz
Texas Refund Desk · Austin, Texas · hello@texasrefunddesk.com

Scan to open your claim